Mr Bob Posner
Legal Counsel
Electoral Commission
SDavey@electoralcommission.org.uk

Dear Mr Posner,

ELECTORAL COMMISSION'S UNLAWFUL CENSORSHIP OF EPP & PURPORTED DEREGISTRATION OF OUR PARTY

As ever, we reserve all rights.

By way of illustrative example, unless and until we have expressly indicated the contrary, which is approximately as probable as pigs flying past a blue moon, we will never concede your unlawful censorship of the acronym "EPP". For as long as such censorship stands, our view is that the Electoral Commission is plainly unfit for purpose.

For two months you have failed to substantiate your unlawful demands of us by demonstrating compliance with PPERA in response, for example, to obviously pertinent questions raised by our retained Queen's Counsel.

Although profoundly unsatisfactory to us - your unlawful conduct has already severely and perhaps fatally compromised our political plans for 2015 - we propose (again and emphatically without prejudice to all/any rights), a further holding name for our Party:

All Freedoms: UK EPP

I recommend that you think both rapidly and very carefully indeed before dismissing out of hand yet another constructive proposal from us (yet alone again misrepresenting us to third parties).

Neither your letter of 27 October nor FOI 130/14 raised any query over our registered emblem: our offer in that regard is therefore withdrawn.

Yours sincerely,
