

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 19 August 2014 13:11
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: 4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)

Yep – I'll dig it out and copy it for Peter

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 19 August 2014 13:10
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: FW: 4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)

Heya

Do you know where the file for EPP is – presume still with the other pwc files?

Thanks

[REDACTED]

---

From: Peter Wardle
Sent: 15 August 2014 13:07
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: 4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)

...except that it's a recognised acronym for 'executive pension plan'. Whatever else the party intended by EPP, I bet it wasn't executive pension plan.

I realise this is almost certainly going to be struck off as a result of our current review. But in preparation for that, can I have the approval file for '4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)' please so that I can understand the thinking that we'd be 'reversing' if we change our view on this particular name?

Thanks

Peter

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: 24 July 2014 10:00
To: Peter Wardle; [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: 4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)

Yes 'EPP' is a recognised acronym

[REDACTED]

---

From: Peter Wardle
Sent: 24 July 2014 09:41
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: 4 Freedoms Party (UK EPP)

Does this party name meet the '6 words or less' test.....? Unless 'EPP' is a recognised (Collins Dictionary?) acronym, isn't it 7 words....?

Peter